What We're Looking For

- A clear sense of calling to ministry with this age group, or demonstrated experience serving in it
- Theological training is a plus, but not a requirement — character, calling, and relational fit come first
- Comfortable working alongside staff, volunteers, and lay leaders, not just running programs solo
- Willing to be part of a small staff team and to grow into the role over time
- Aligned with the church's Reformed theological convictions

Commitment

Full-time and part-time arrangements will both be considered, depending on the candidate and the specific ministry need. Some roles may begin as a defined exploratory period before a longer-term commitment is made on either side.
